Issue 8 August 2003

This month is our annual picnic. It will be held at Charlie and Ruth Anderson's house on Bainbridge Island. The picnic will be Saturday August 16th at 1:00 P.M. Food will be served at 4:00 P.M. Remember your family and significant others are welcome to come. Due to road closures you will have to take a detour when going to the picnic. I have included a map to their house with this newsletter and some brief directions follow. Battle Point Road is completely blocked where it meets Miller Road. There is a detour on to Tolo Road (there will be a detour sign there) about a mile north of where you would normally turn on to Battle Point Road. Turn on to and follow Tolo Road for about a mile. You will come to a stop sign. This will be Battle Point Road. Turn left onto Battle Point Road. There may be a blocking barrier but you will want to go around this and follow Battle Point Road to Charlie and Ruth's house, it will be on the left.

Please RSVP to Ruth Anderson at 206-842-4148. Let her know if you will be attending the picnic and how many people you will be bringing so that we have enough hamburgers for everyone. She also needs to know what you are bringing so that we have a good variety of food for the picnic.

Our tour of the Weyerhaeuser exhibit has been changed from September 20 to September 27 at 11 am, a week later because of the conflict with the Pacific Northwest Bonsai Clubs Association Convention 2003. We will take in the regular display and also see "behind the scenes". The Rhododendron species garden is located here also and well worth the visit if you would like to take the time while we are there.

Speaking of the Pacific

Northwest Bonsai Clubs Association Convention 2003, this will be held September 19th-21st at the Doubletree Hotel in Bellevue Wa. The featured artists this year are Colin Lewis, Chase Rosade, Solita Rosade and our very own Charlie Anderson. So put this on you calendar, it is an event you won't want to miss. Plus the club earns money for every club member that signs up for the full week end event.
